Hanover, Auguſt 30, N. S.

ON Saturday laſt the 27th in the Afternoon, his Majeſty arrived at Zell from Ghorde, and reſted there on Sunday. Yeſterday Morning early the King left Zell, and having hunted two or three Hours in the Neighbourhood of that City, he returned to Herrenhauſen, where his Majeſty arrived about two a-Clock in the Afternoon in perfect Health. Laſt Night the Lord Townſhend, Lord Waldegrave, General Diemar, and ſeveral other Perſons of Diſtinction, returned hither from Zell.

Hague, Sept. 2, N. S. The great Penſionary is ſo well recovered of his late Fit of the Gout, that he is at preſent out of any Danger, but is ſtill confined to his Bed. The Earl of Cheſterfield having repreſented to the States General, the Proceedings of the King of Pruſſia, in drawing together a great Body of Troops on the Frontiers of his Britannick Majeſty's Dominions in Germany, and ſummoned their High Mightineſſes for their Aſſiſtance if it ſhould be required, in Conſequence of their Engagements and the ſtrict Friendſhip and Union happily ſubſiſting between his Majeſty and them; their High Mightineſſes have reſolved to write a Letter to the King of Pruſſia, to diſſwade him from all military Proceedings; and have alſo reſolved to have a Body of Troops in Readineſs to aſſiſt his Britannick Majeſty. Accordingly they have named Eight Regiments of Foot, and Eleven of Horſe and Dragoons, which are quartered near the Frontiers of the Dutchy of Cleves belonging to the King of Pruſſia, and near other Parts of Germany, to be ready to march at the firſt Notice, where his Majeſty ſhall think requiſite; and have alſo given Directions for more Forces to get ready, to be employed to aſſiſt his Majeſty as Occaſion ſhall require. We have Advice from Berlin, that M. de Sauveterre who has the Care of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's Affairs at that Court, had acquainted the King of Pruſſia's Miniſters, that he was ordered to declare in the Name of the King his Maſter, that in caſe any Hoſtilities ſhould be attempted to the Diſturbance of the Peace of the Circles of Lower Germany, his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty would be obliged as Guarantee of the Treaties of Weſtphalia, and by others ſince made, to concur and aſſiſt in the Meaſures which ſhould be taken againſt ſuch hoſtile Proceedings.

Kenſington, Auguſt 26.

This Day M. Chammorel, Secretary from the moſt Chriſtian King to this Court, was introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, to a private Audience of Her Majeſty: To whom he notified the welcome News juſt brought to him by an Expreſs, that laſt Sunday at Three a-Clock in the Morning her moſt Chriſtian Majeſty was ſafely delivered of a Dauphin, at Verſailles; which Her Majeſty received with Expreſſions of great Joy and Satisfaction. M. Chammorel has likewiſe had private Audiences of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, his Royal Highneſs the Duke, and their Royal Highneſſes the Princeſſes, to make the like Notification to them.

Navy-Office, Aug. 25, 1729.

Theſe are to give Notice, That on Wedneſday the 17th of September next, in the Morning, the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy will be ready to treat with ſuch Perſons as ſhall be inclinable to import and ſerve into His Majeſty's ſeveral Yards, on Contract, ſuch New-England Maſts, Bowſprits and Yards, as may be wanted for the Service of His Majeſty's Navy after the Expiration of the Year 1730, that they may attend with their Propoſals accordingly.
